

THANKSGIVING

Dear Children's Circle Families,

Thanksgiving.....what a great concept! A whole day devoted to the act of giving thanks! But, shouldn't we do that every day? As adults we can make a list of all of the things that we are thankful for; health, family, friends, etc. But children are thankful for sun, a light breeze, a caterpillar, a hand to hold, crackers and crayons! Children may not be able to verbalize their gratefulness, but they live it! They have an amazing ability to be "in the moment" and soak in the gift of that very moment. They show their gratitude by smiling, skipping, singing and being still. They live it most of their waking moments. So, this month my challenge to you is to live your gratitude. If you need some instructions on how to do that.....watch your children. j

Take care and Happy Thanksgiving,
