

General Information

Campers may arrive anytime between 12:00 noon and 8:00 p.m. on Friday, September 11th. Dinner will not be served Friday night, so please plan a food stop prior to your arrival at camp. There are plenty of great places to eat in Hendersonville.

Please plan to arrive no later than 8:30 p.m. Friday night. Important announcements will be made and ice cream sundaes will be served.

You may depart after chores are completed following lunch on Sunday. The retreat officially ends at 2:00 p.m.

Accommodations are available for singles, couples, and families with children. Everyone will be housed in comfortable cabins according to family size. In the event that sharing a cabin is necessary, please indicate a family you would like to share with on the registration form.

Campers will be emailed details including maps, cabin reservations, chore assignments and other information before September 9th.

Camp Tekoa

Camp Tekoa is a beautiful United Methodist camp located in the mountains near Hendersonville, NC. Cabins are rustic, yet comfortable. The dining hall offers a picturesque view of the lake where you may canoe, ride in a paddle boat, or go swimming (when a lifeguard is on duty). Rows of rocking chairs encourage catching up with friends and making new ones. Other available activities include hikes, a zip line, nature trails, rope course and a climbing tower.

Kick Back, Relax, Revive

The Camp Tekoa Weekend for Myers Park United Methodist Church offers everyone a chance to relax as well as enjoy leisure activities with others in our faith community. The intergenerational setting is fun for all. There is a campfire on Saturday night and for informal worship on Sunday morning. Everyone is expected to attend both these activities which encourage community building and enhance our identity and experience as the body of Christ.

The Camp Tekoa Weekend

is for everyone— singles, retired persons, youth, single parent families, couples with or without children, long time members, new members and prospective members. It's a stress free way for anyone to connect with others at Myers Park UMC.

Bring: blankets, linens, (or sleeping bag) towels, personal items, port-a-cribs, jackets, hiking shoes, raincoat, bathing suit, reading materials, favorite games, flashlight, musical instruments, other leisure activities (to include road/mountain biking).

Cost is per person and includes meals (except Friday night), lodging and insurance from Friday evening through Sunday afternoon.
